Chapter 1 by Story Wars

..... between crazy and eccentric can be measured by the tender in your coffers, but being insane or a genius is likened to art and the eyes of the beholder. To think outside the box, to see the trees when others only see forest.

I find myself at time as a simple eight color crayon box all over the page making my own pictures, while being criticized by the sixty four packs with their built in sharpeners that I'm wasting a page and to color within the lines.

Trees! While it may not end up on the fridge, being happy is better than being manipulated into conformity with little gold stars!

Muse me with some short Tails of fancy. Turns of phase, or the pitter patter of your brain cells upon the page.
